Benefits questions we get every week

Written by the Benefits team for the colleague portal. Last reviewed in October.

Enrolment

Q. When can I change my elections?

A. During open enrolment each November, or within 31 days of a qualifying life event such as marriage, birth, adoption, or a spouse's loss of coverage.

Q. I missed open enrolment. What happens?

A. Your current elections roll over at the new year's rates, except for the health savings account contribution, which resets to zero and must be re-elected.

Comparing the medical plans

Feature	Core PPO	Value HDHP	Select HMO
Annual deductible, individual	$1,200	$2,800	$0
Coinsurance after deductible	20%	10%	Copay only
Out-of-pocket maximum	$5,000	$6,500	$4,000
Health savings account eligible	No	Yes	No
Out-of-network coverage	Yes	Yes	Emergency only

Which plan should I pick?

Benefits cannot recommend a plan. The decision tool in the enrolment portal models your expected costs under each option using last year's claims. Colleagues who expect low usage and want to build a health savings account often choose the Value HDHP; colleagues who prefer predictable copays often choose the Select HMO.

Dependents

Q. Can I cover my domestic partner?

A. Yes. Complete the domestic partner affidavit during enrolment. Imputed income may apply depending on your state.

Q. Until what age can I cover a child?

A. Through the end of the month in which the child turns 26, regardless of student or marital status.

Fictional sample content created for a search demo. Not a real policy.